Explore European Identity!
Welcome to an immersive learning experience where European identity comes alive through vibrant discussions, lectures, and collaborative exploration! Our course, "European Identity in the European Union: A Focus on Intercultural Communication, Language, and Gender," is set to unfold in the virtual realm, combining engaging video conferencing sessions and the interactive Moodle platform.

Discover the intricate tapestry of European identity as we delve into its creation, reinforcement, and evolution across diverse perspectives and historical epochs. From the fascinating dynamics of intercultural communication to the profound impact of language and politics, our exploration promises to be intellectually stimulating and enlightening.

The course examines how ideas of European identity are created, reinforced and modified. This question will be studied from different viewpoints and time periods. The focus will be on the questions of intercultural communication, language and politics. Students will learn to use key concepts concerning European identity.

The course is held by Anne Kupila and is free for all students of the UNIVERSEH Alliance (all students from Université de Toulouse, HHU Düsseldorf, AGH Kraków, LTU Luleå, Università degli Studi di Roma Tor Vergata, University of Luxembourg, Université de Namur).

Are you interested? Register now! Once you have registered, your teacher will send you all the information you need to take part in the online course before the course begins.

You got any more questions about the course?
Contact us! spz-universeh@hhu.de