

Motivate Me! Workshop

What motivates us at work? Join this 100% online workshop to explore professional values, the meaning of work, and different working environments through individual questionnaires, interactive activities, and practical resources.

For students preparing to enter the job market and employees looking to better understand what drives their professional motivation.

Monday, September 28th
12.15-13.15
Online

